

Ipswich Civic College, later Suffolk College, photographed around 1970. The detail focuses on the college buildings framed by Grimwade and Fore Streets, Back Hamlet and Rope Walk. St Edmund House on the corner of Rope Walk and Grimwade Street would occupy the car park shown here. The Ready-Mix Concrete plant can be seen at the lower left, behind the remaining 14-foot high wall of the former Meux maltings. Duke Street roundabout, now no more, is at the bottom-centre of the photograph.
