

Tumultuous Welcome at Ipswich

Thousands lined the Ipswich streets. Here the Royal Procession is about to cross over White Horse Corner.

Right: Leaving the College after the opening with Sir Clavering Fison (left) and the Principal Mr. Frank Metcalfe.

Bottom: Eager schoolchildren lined the Cornhill anxious for a glimpse of the Queen.

Sixteen Thousand schoolchildren greeted Her Majesty at Portman Road. The banners of the British Legion added more colour to a gay scene as the Queen drove round in her Lind Rover.

Above: (Centre): Unveiling the commemorative tablet at the Civic College.

Right: Catherine Dell reciting her "Ode of Welcome" at Portman Road.

Above: Major's Corner was packed to capacity as the Royal procession passed.
Bottom: A happy picture of Her Majesty in conversation at the Civic College.